CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In his charge to the Federal grand jury investigating to determine to investigate the methods of the so-called "Beef Trust," declared it was through information furnished by him that the present proceedings were started. Judge Landis also said that after he had notified the United States District Attorney in Chicago on January 20, he was surprised to see on January 22, notices in the newspapers, coming ostensibly from Washington, that the government officials there had ordered the investigation.

It was further stated, however, that action on the beef trust investigation would be postponed for a few days until some docket cases had been considered. It was explained that the present investigation was of such importance that it would be better if the public were given time in which to familiarize itself with the routine of grand jury procedure before considering the evidence to be submitted.

"Having in mind the duty of the District Attorney," said Judge Landis, "I notified that office on the 20th of the present month that our investigator would direct your attention to the subject of the present investigation.

"It is a source of profound regret that two days later there began widespread newspaper publication of material purporting to come from Washington and revealing the intention and determination of certain governmental functionaries there to do as this proceeding and alleging, in that connection, their purpose with respect to certain legislation in Congress."

"Without assuming here officially that there is anything behind the publications except journalistic enterprise, I caution you to pay no attention to them, as we will consider your duty conscientiously to report to the public the subject of the present investigation.

ANTI-MEAT AGITATION SENDS FOOD SPECULATORS TO COVER.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Agitation over the high cost of living and the meat boycott which was inaugurated in Cleveland, spreading all over the country, is beginning to tell on all speculative markets, especially the provision futures. Not only have grain and provision values suffered severe declines, but packers' securities have been subjected to much pressure, investors fearing a serious depreciation in values as a result of the government probe which started today. Swift stock on the local exchange was especially weak, falling over three points. Many of the leading railroad and industrial stocks also suffered declines.

The most sensational slump in values, however, was in the local provision market. Since the inauguration of the meat ban, the price of January pork on the Chicago Board of Trade has declined $2 per barrel. The following table shows how values have slumped during the last ten days:

PORK.

	January delivery	Jan. 22	Jan. 23	Jan. 24	Closes in 10 Days.

Says Since Prices Have Gone So High, "You Don't Get Your Money's Worth"—"There Are Other Things Just as Good and Cheaper"—Orders 15¢ Worth of Fish.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is time for the entire population of Greater New York to join the meat boycott.

Mrs. Hetty Green, who has more millions than any of us nickels, declared today that the meat cost too much "for people to eat and cut it out of their luncheon menu."

Mrs. Green was up town on business today and dropped into a cheap restaurant. It is a place much frequented by reporters and others in those days of the week immediately preceding pay day.

Mrs. Green looked over the bill of fare while the waiter wiped off the table. She asked him what he would recommend.

"The steaks are very nice," he replied, with an eye for the interest of the house. Steaks are 50 cents a copy there and they sell very few of them.

Mrs. Green glanced at the steak item and asked:

"What size?"

"Well," said the waiter, "the roast lamb and roast beef are particularly good today." These are 30 cents per pound.

Mrs. Green frowned at the menu.

"I don't think I'll eat any meat," she said. "It costs too much. Give me some ham."

The meal was listed at 15 cents, and being filled, was getting a strong play. A reporter was sitting a little further away at the same table and recognized the "mess of millions," Mrs. Green, as the meat boycott.

"No, not exactly that," she replied; "but really the price of meat has gone up so that you don't get your money's worth. People can't afford to eat it, though."

After enlarging on the fact that Congress can not interfere with commerce within a State, the court continued:

"You will perceive intent is the essence of this offense, and it is my opinion that it must be a conscious purpose on the part of the accused to suppress competition by cooperation to that end."

The law does not concern itself with mere coincidence of conduct in the absence of such intent."

PIITTSBURGH CATTLE PRICES TAKE DROP.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

PIITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—Cattle prices dropped from 50 to 40 cents a hundred at the Union Stock Yards here as a result of the "boycott" on that commodity.

There was a large reduction in prices on veal and beef still continues at the high price that set the boycott in operation. The price of horns also took a drop, but there was no reduction in the price of dressed beef.

It was reported the supply of hogs and cattle was great and that many small hotels in the city are falling into line with meatless menus.

One hundred and twenty-five thousand have signed the anti-meat pledge, involving 600,000 persons.

BUTTER PRICES SLUMP TEN CENTS IN ST. LOUIS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS (Mo.), Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Butter prices dropped 10 cents a pound here today when prices at the Elgin, Ill., creamery market fell 5 cents, to 25¢ cents a pound.

St. Louis butter dealers attribute the break in prices directly to the consumers' sympathetic strike against unreasonably high prices of provision in general. They admit that thousands of families here have ceased to use butter for cooking purposes, treating it as a table luxury. The creameries were caught with an over-production when the market price fell.

State Inspector W. W. Williams reports that school children's applications to him for certificates to quit school here, under the law, which prohibits employment of children under the age of 14, has doubled in January, compared with previous months. He attributes this to the increased cost of living.

EXHAUSTIVE COMMUNICATION.

NATIONAL WATERWAYS BODY DISCUSSES RATE QUESTION.

The Commission, in Its Preliminary Report, Says That Unnecessary Channel Improvements Should Not Be Made to Force Railroad Tariff Reductions — Urges Conservation of Power Sites and Other Suggestions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Almost every section of the country will be subjects of local as well as general interest in the preliminary report of the National Waterways Commission, submitted to Congress today.

This preliminary report recommends a general plan of conservation of water power, with the shaping of projects in the light of future needs of streams; resort to Federal and State legislation rather than to unnecessary channel improvement merely to force reduction of railroad freight rates with inhibition, on the other hand, of water competition of waterways improvement between Federal, State and local governments; avoidance of multiplication of ports; restriction of dam construction permits; inauguration of such waterway projects only as can be completed within a reasonable time; a Federal tax on power furnished to consumers; reservation by the government of the right to alter or repeal power grants.

The commission holds the government has no proprietary right or interest in navigable waters which would authorize the collection of tolls, it believes that each consent of tolls should be granted to the grantee, whenever necessary to subserve navigation interests, must construct and furnish locks to lock the locality up to the point of transhipment.

In this way, it says, definite results can be relied upon, plans can be made for utilizing streams improved, and careful provision should also be made for maintaining existing works, otherwise improvements already made will deteriorate.

In general policy of improving streams in waterway systems, the commission advises that the main stream be improved first and raised to a level which will be safe for navigation to its tributaries; that preference be given lower portions of the stream, and that improvement proceed as a rule from the mouth up.

TRAFFIC DECREASES.

The most striking instance cited of decrease in waterway traffic is that of the Erie Canal, though the commission regards as "quite striking" the de-crease in traffic on the Mississippi River and its tributaries.

In 1850 this canal carried between Buffalo and New York, the report says, 4,000,000 tons, while in 1865 the total traffic, while in 1865 (the latest year for which statistics are available), the canal carried only 2,366,491 tons, or 3 per cent. of the total traffic.

The traffic report on the other hand, that traffic on the Great Lakes has increased enormously. Among what are called artificial canals, the commission advises that the Erie Canal, the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, and the Illinois River, are those that come from power to acquire steamboat lines, or to agree for stiffening water-borne traffic, refusal to permit water lines and better roads.

Construction of artificial canals adapted to the purpose of seagoing ships, according to the commission, is not practicable, but they should be constructed in narrow strips of the sea, or where comparatively short canals are available.

Pointing out that railroads have been compelled to lower rates and continue them in any possible stream, the commission recommends that when a rate is proposed construction should be undertaken only when the rate is to be raised again, unless after hearing by the Interstate Commerce Commission or other competent body, it should be authorized by the government for the power furnished consumers and should expressly reserve to Congress the right to alter, amend or revoke.

The commission recommends that railroads improve their rates on rivers and harbors, but that they should not be raised unless sufficient assurance is given that private companies would furnish some equivalent service.

The commission recommends avoiding undue multiplication of ports, and harbors, and making them useful to the largest number, a proper dividing line between work under Federal and under city and private appropriations, and measures for the greatest possible promotion of navigation on navigable and non-navigable streams.

The commission is unwilling to recommend construction of wharves and docks by the government.

Summarizing its findings abroad, the commission says that the average European freight rates on railroads paralleling water routes, especially for coal, are twice as high as in the United States, the European rates for water-borne carriage are as high, or higher, than on railroads in the United States, where the traffic is larger.

CITIES ADVANTAGES.

The commission cites many disadvantages of these canals but makes no recommendations.

Improvements not essential to navigation should not be undertaken by the commission, and improvements in rivers and harbors should not be made, unless sufficient assurance is given that private companies would furnish some equivalent service.

The commission recommends avoiding undue multiplication of ports, and harbors, and making them useful to the largest number, a proper dividing line between work under Federal and under city and private appropriations, and measures for the greatest possible promotion of navigation on navigable and non-navigable streams.

URGES RATE AGREEMENTS.

The commission believes transportation facilities will be further promoted by compelling different rates and rating agreements, through bills of lading and physical protection between rail and water terminals.

The commission cannot see its way clear to minimum rates, but the majority of the commission would recommend empowering the Interstate Commerce Commission to prescribe minimum rates whenever the object of a railroad in its operations is to decrease waterway competition.

Referring to criticism upon the delay of Congress in the development of water routes, the commission points to the fact that the use of the inter-coastal waterway has not been commensurate with the expense incurred, and points to a lack of progressiveness in providing suitable freight-carrying facilities and to load.

The sudden drop from 26 cents, coming in the midst of the agitation, caused by the high price of food, caused general comment. It was admitted by the board members that the drop was largely due to the agitation and to the tendency in many localities to abstain from meat.

Price had reached Elgin that some localities had entered into a butter boycott. Before the board met it was reported that some had dropped to 22 cents.

On the other hand, some cheaper cuts were quoted from one-half to 1 cent per pound, higher, showing a large demand for the lower price.

In stocks, the pressure due to selling of speculative accounts was augmented by offerings from investors, who forced a serious depreciation in the value of securities as a result of a possible shrinkage in the price of Santa Fe.

There was a general probe into the market, and the price探查 was especially weak, failing over three points. The stock market districts were abounding in visitors, who became frightened over the possible outcome of the beef investigation.

Many of the leading railroad and industrial stocks traded on the New York Exchange showed decline from four to five points from high prices of Saturday, while losses in less active issues were even more substantial.

The sudden drop in prices was attributed to the fact that the price of food was high.

They claim it is practice with commission merchants to dump into the market large quantities of fruit and vegetables when prices are low, to raise the price.

Large numbers of pack boys and doffers struck when they found that under the operation of the new fifty-six-hour law they were to receive pay for four hours instead of five.

They are to receive pay for sixty hours and received pay for sixty hours.

Postpones Inquiry to Insure Thoroughness.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Judge K. M. Landis, in his charge to the United States District Court, in his charge to the Federal grand jury assembled today to investigate the methods of the so-called "Beef Trust," declared it was through information furnished by him that the present proceedings were started. Judge Landis also said that he had, nothing, that the United States District Attorney in Chicago, on January 20, was surprised to see on January 22, notices in the newspapers, coming ostensibly from Washington, that the government officials there had ordered the investigation.

It was announced, however, that action on the beef trust investigation would be postponed for a few days longer, some time had been considered. It was explained that the present investigation was of such importance that it would be better if the jury were given a little time in which to familiarize itself with the routine of grand jury service before considering the evidence to be submitted by the packers' case.

"Having in mind the duty of the District Attorney, I have notified him that on the 25th of the present month that on your assembling here today the court would direct your attention to the subject of the present investigation."

REAGONS OF PROFOUND REGRET.

"For the sake of profound regret that two days later there began widespread newspaper publication of master purveyor to come from Washington and expressing the intention and determination of certain governmental functions to them to this effect, and alleging, in that connection, their purpose with respect to certain individuals residing in this district, that there is anything behind the publications except journalistic enterprise. I caution you to pay no attention whatever to them, as it will be your good fortune to learn from me from making any disclosures of matters transpiring in your jury room."

"This is so for two reasons: In the first place, it is an individual who has brought about the right of trial by a jury taken from an atmosphere that has not been surcharged with feeling against him; and, in the second place, if he is not guilty, it is not right that he should be punished from time to time that evidence showing him guilty of criminal conduct should be presented to the jury."

"Various reports of alleged circumstances and conditions in connection with the meat industry have come to me, and the representations set forth in these circumstances, even if true, do not necessarily imply violation of Federal law, they are of such character as to clearly impose upon the court the duty of directing its attention to them, to the end that the subject may have at your hands the investigation and consideration its importance requires."

DEFINER TRUST LAW.

"The statute declares every contract combination, in the form of trusts or otherwise, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, or commerce, among the several State or with foreign nations, to be illegal, and it is provided that every person who shall enter into such contract, or engage in any such combination or conspiracy, or who shall monopolize or attempt to monopolize or combine with others to monopolize or persons to monopolize any part of such trade or commerce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

"While you are of the opinion that Congress can not interfere with commerce within a State, the court continued:

"You will perceive intent is the essence of this offense—that is to say, there must be a conscious purpose, on the part of the accused to suppress competition by cooperation to that end, and that intent is to be inferred from with more coincidence of conduct in the absence of such intent."

ST. LOUIS (Mo.), Jan. 24.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Butter prices dropped 10 cents a pound here today, food prices at the Kresge, Elks, drugstore market fell 6 cents, to 32½ cents a pound. St. Louis butter dealers attribute the break in prices directly to the consumers' sympathetic strike against unreasonably high prices for provisions in general. They admit that many thousands of families here have ceased to use butter for cooking purposes, preferring it as a table luxury. The creams were caught with an over-production—hence today's slump in prices.

ST. LOUIS (Mo.), Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] High prices of meat and other foods are forcing children out of the schoolroom into the factory and workshop.

The statement was made today by W. W. Williams, State factory inspector. His office is filled with children who desire to quit school and go to work in factories. Each must have a certificate from the factory inspector before he can leave school.

Williams always inquires the reason and without exception the great need of applicants during the last ten days, to be given the cost of living as the reason.

The applications for child labor permits have almost doubled for the first half of the year, compared with previous months. The Rev. James E. Meeker of Compton Hill Congregational Church has an opportunity to become interested in the butchers' cause. Mr. Meeker, yesterday at a meeting of the Master Butchers' Association, extended an invitation to the members of his business to Dr. Meeker for a week to see what the pastor could do as a beef purveyor. If the pastor made a profit, Mr. Leibell said he would pay the pastor twice the salary he is receiving as a pastor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Twenty-three Japanese have been arrested on the Hawaiian Islands under the regulations preventing the destruction of birds or plumage. It was announced today. They will be turned over to the United States Marshal at Honolulu for trial.

The arrests were made by Capt. William E. Jacobs, commanding the revenue cutter Theta, which at the request of the Interior Department, had been sent to the Hawaiian Islands to prevent the destruction of birds or plumage and to arrest any persons found illegal in taking them.

Two hundred and fifty-nine thousand pairs of wings were seized. The arrests and seizures were made on Lanai and Maui Islands. The captain expected to leave Midway for Honolulu last Saturday.

One of the last acts of Theodore Roosevelt was to issue a number of proclamations setting aside from public use islands in various parts of the United States and its possessions which were known to abound with birds of plumage with the intention of preserving the feathered tribe.

Edison Electric Company a five years' extension of time within which to complete its work on three projects on the Kern River. The company got a permit four years ago and the time expires in one year. The company claims to have expended about $160,000 on the plants, largely in surveys, etc. Smith has the opposite opinion and under which the permits were originally granted, which includes a tax to be fixed by the Interior Department, the use of several sites. It is inequitable, in Smith's opinion, to give any company preferential rights and he declares that it should not have any better treatment than other power companies in California.

DENNETH DEFENDS.

EXPLAINS EXPENDITURES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Admitting that the paper fasteners used by the General Land Office were invented by his chief of accounts, Irving C. Rittenhouse, he defended the writer of the letter which accused him of profiting from the work of others.

He said that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills brought him a box for me to try. Although I had been sick for several weeks, I was soon helped by the pills. My appetite picked up and the food was digested. I began to get stronger and in a short time I was cured. I am glad to tell of the success which I hope will be of help to other sufferers."

The remedy that cured Mrs. Burdick is guaranteed free from opiates or harmful drugs.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be, east, west, on receipt of price, and will cost six cents for a box.

ity to the Supervisors of Mohave County, Arizona, to issue bonds for $40,000, to provide for the construction of a Courthouse, furnishing it and improving of those sources.

Mr. Stevens said a little more than $100 worth of furniture, including curtains and rugs, had been bought for use in the General Land Office under the $1,000,000 in public domain protection funds, but that the amount spent on the work under that appropriation, and was of the cheapest kind of material and bought under the regular contract.

MENASING.

MORE VICTIMS OF UGLY DOGS.

WOMAN BITTEN BY VICIOUS CUR AND HER CLOTHES TORN.

Collie's Owner Gets Letter from City Attorney Calling Attention to City Ordinance—Piano Tuner, in Search of Business, Feels Fangs in His Leg—Wound Dressed.

Cubs bit two persons yesterday and inflicted serious injuries on both victims. While one was complaining at the Central Police Station, and the other to a piano tuner, another was having his wounds dressed in the Receiving Hospital, a large collie dog, which is kept at the residence of F. Brandon, No. 1626 Staunton avenue, attacked and bit a woman who gave her name as Mrs. James T. Harry, No. 322 West Twenty-second street.

Several complaints have been received in the office of the captain of the Central Police Station, and the request to the captain was about to ask for an officer to make an inquiry when he received a message that a woman had been badly bitten by a dog of which he already had complaints.

A well-dressed woman was passing along Staunton avenue when the collie dog ran out and barked at her. She says she screamed and tried to scare him away, but the animal sprang at her, tore her clothes and bit her on the limbs. She was carried to a doctor's house, and a doctor was called to dress her wound. Although the injured woman gave her address as No. 322 West Twenty-second street, no such number was found.

Secretary Hill says he has received many complaints about the dog at No. 1626 Staunton avenue. He called the attention of the City Attorney's office to the complaint, and yesterday a letter was sent to the owner of the vicious brute.

G. E. Riley, a piano tuner, who lives at No. 2606 Wesley avenue, appeared at the Receiving Hospital yesterday morning, having been inflicted by a vicious cur treated and dressed, had a severe laceration on his right leg, and blood poisoning was feared.

Riley says that he called in his regular roommates, and the residence of W. G. Jones, No. 1200 Melonia avenue. He entered the yard and closed the gate behind him as he walked toward the porch. Without any warning, a snarling cur hurled itself at him and fastened its fangs in his leg.

After leaving the hospital, Riley wanted to get a warrant against the dog's owner, but was told that so long as it was being held on the private property of the possessor of the cur, he could have no redress other than a civil action.

The piano tuner was indignant when he learned that he could not immediate redress, and said:

"Now, if the man who owns the dog had stepped out in the yard and hit me with a club, I surely could have had him taken up for it. Yet he keeps a vicious dog, which has maimed many men, could have done, and I will need to bring a civil suit if I want any redress. The law is sure a funny thing."

Games were played and Miss Emilie Gilbert and Clarence Kellar captured the prizes.

The guests were Miss Ethel Myers, Miss Leah Spencer, Miss Edna Clevenor, Miss Emilie Gilbert, Miss Ethel Gilbert, Miss Frances Deshields, Miss Bessie Neal, Miss Nellie Griffen, Miss Hazel Wharton, Hershal Griffin, Paul Speth, Mrs. W. H. Gilmore, Mrs. Lester East Miller, Lester Mead, Earl Hobson, Charles Wharton, Albert Gilbert, Willie Neal, George Robbins and Arthur Wharton.

Mrs. Clara Rerr Rice of Chicago and Mrs. L. A. Bernard of Omaha, Neb., are guests of Mrs. Harriet Christy Sheridan of the Valsora on Alvarado street.

Dinner was served, covers being laid for 100. Later an enjoyable musical programme was rendered by Mrs. Alice Allard, Miss Lillian Hurlbert, Miss Giddey and Miss Vera Atkins. Readings by Miss Leland were also enjoyed.

To Leave.

Seattle Gets 'Way Back.

REATTLE, Jan. 23.—[To the Editor of The Times.]—The Times were six or eight pages of the Los Angeles Times pasted on a large sheet of card board and standing large like life-size billboards. They are not much to be envied in this respect.

Dr. L. A. Hamburger, 1120 South Marion street, is the only department store that has a good display department with a big D.

And what do you think was on those front pages? What was it that kept as constant a bunch of gentle highbrows as ever gathered in the interest of science, but with aversion to the world? Oh, you Los Angeles, with your aviators and your airmen, you have put it over. Seattle good and plenty; they have come to us.

CIS. FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN.

by SYDNEY FORD.

This spring is Russian this season. Yesterday I was in an unpronounceable shop on the typewriter ballroom, and the perfumes of the court—high as the insects from the center of petals—blasted blossoms. Yes, there you five cents a small bottle, very lasting, like attar of roses positively the latest perfume, because it's new. A new shampoo on the shape of a shampoo bottle have to do is to pour a large amount of water on the bag. Then a special soap or alkali soap have poured the water over the bag, let it stand for fifteen minutes. Then wash the hair and scalp with the other water. Use the other water after washing. These bags are inexpensive and it's a neat way of shampooing hair without bothering about powder or soap. It's a quick and simple manufacturer's claiuses the hair wonderfully. When you use it, it stimulates and nourishes the hair. I saw some powder, I saw some get up in little glass bottles and a small bottle for one shampoo to use the same as any of the powders—by dissolving water. Herbs and flowers are set at intervals along the hem of many cases of blood powder. It is dangerous of cutting the hair thereby causing the hair to fall out. These little girls cost but nothing. They powder for the fingers, and applied a powder, but for home use it is inconvenient. I saw the toilet department of a few stores, a pomade of a stick of crayon, the slickest thing I put a polish on your hair. The best way to do is to touch up the end of the crayon and the buffer, and behold, your hair will be shiny as the sun. This shows a "traveling buffer," because it is designed for travel. It is not long, and is adjustable. There are four so that when one is worn out, another may be used in its place. The buffers, ought to last the average woman's lifetime and then some be left to her descendants.

Silks and Aprons. In the finest, newest, socks of satin, lace, etc., ever before two inches long, from the bottom of the bottle. They will fit into a hand purse, and for a woman's ideal—especially our vintage when she can make the most elaborate skirt. The woman who would be extremely well dressed sees that her veil will harmonize with the rest of her costume.

Skunk continues to trim garments of cloth and velvet, as well as the most delicate and fragile of evening gowns.

After row of the simple chain stitch done with heavy silk, is used as a finish to many a handsome evening gown.

Gowns are not expected to show any startling changes. White has become the accepted fashion for light or heavy gowns.

RIVAL ELECTION PROGRAMMES.

A Succinct Guide for the Man Who Wants to Understand British Politics.

In view of the British elections, the following table of the rival programmes will be read with interest, and possibly with profit. Recollect that whichever party wins, there may be five years of legislation on any of the topics mentioned below:

THE LIBERAL PROGRAMME.
Abolition of the Peers' Absolute Veto.
No Veto at all on Budgets.
Suspension Veto only on Legislation.
Home Rule for Ireland.
Welsh Disestablishment.
Maintenance of Free Trade.
New Licensing Bill.
New Education Bill.
Abolition of Plural Voting.
Shorter Parliaments (five years).

SOCIAL REFORM.
Removal of the Pauper Disqualification of Old Age Pensions.
Poor Law Reform.
Labor Exchanges—Development.
Workmen's Insurance against Sickness and Unemployment.
Women's Suffrage (if the House decides).
Scotch Valuation Bill.

POINTS TO REMEMBER.
The Liberal Party favors the retention of the Second Chamber, but does not abolish the hereditary principle.
Under the Suspensory Veto and shorter Parliaments, they would be no longer an important political power.
Under the supreme and undeniably authority of the Imperial Parliament a system of self-government is to be established in Ireland in regard to purely Irish affairs."

"The anomalies and injustices created by the Education Act of 1902 have still to be remedied." The Welsh people for complete religious equality, represents a really national demand."

"In opposing the Home Rule we stand on the main and governing principles of the world's civilization."

Sympathetic treatment of all social measures tending to ameliorate the condition of the working classes.

Franchise reform is to be taken in hand, particularly with a view to the removal of electoral anomalies.

Free Trade, but not on it there can be no compromise whatever.

General reform, a stout opposition to be offered to all measures measured to protect those calculated to destroy public confidence.

TURKISH TRAITS.

MUHAMMEDANS ARE HONEST.

KNOW NOTHING SUPERIOR TO THEIR RELIGION.

Temperance and Cleanliness indicated by Teachings of the Koran Which Also Makes the People Democratic and Unaffected by Social Conditions Surrounding Them.

The Turks are not only more honest than shopkeepers, but they make the most reliable servants, says Constantinople correspondent of the Boston Transcript. The Turkish servant who comes from the interior, unspoiled by contact with civilization, is absolutely honest, faithful and veracious. He can be trusted alone in the house without fear of articles disappearing, which cannot be said of the other races of the Ottoman empire. If sent on an errand, he brings back a true report of what he has done. If caught in a lie, he can be trusted to deliver the right change. Perhaps the Turk is honest because he is too slow-witted to be otherwise, and cannot dodge about the truth so nimly as his more subtle-minded brothers of the Orient. But whatever the cause, he deserves credit for the possession of this virtue.

THE TURK'S RELIGION SINCERE.

It only remains to speak of the Turk's religion. We do not know why it is that here exists in the Christian world so much a gross prejudice against such a pure and primitive religion.

Mohammedanism, unless it is because it permits four wives. Carlyle was one of the first to show the world that a movement like this does not grow through the centuries by deceit, but because it has won it for the masses.

The possibility of growth; and so today when we see Mohammedanism spreading in India and Africa we are not so much inclined as formerly to sneer at the Turks.

APPRECIATIVE.
GET 'EM RIPE
FROM GROVES.

Inland Empire Excursionists
Visit Orange Belt.

Guests from North Welcomed in Los Angeles.

Chamber of Commerce Host at Reception.

After a day passed among the orange groves of Riverside and Redlands, the members of the Inland Empire Excursion were given a public reception at the Chamber of Commerce last night. Many former residents of the State of Washington, who now reside in this city, joined in the greeting of the northerners.

After a short time an orchestra, and light refreshments, brief speeches were made. President Booth welcomed the Spokane-Walla Walla party in a few well-chosen words, and then introduced Joseph Scott, president-elect, as "far better qualified to speak for this chamber."

"Sometimes Mr. Booth's innate moderation is the best of him," began Mr. Scott, in a humorous way. "As the president of this organization, he should have made the opening speech a little longer and allowed me only a brief moment in which to express my sentiments."

"We are glad to see so many persons leave from the North. We don't want to depopulate that splendid section of the country, but there is plenty of room in Southern California for all who care to come. There are many men here who would like to become model husbands. I understand that there are a number of young ladies in your party. If that is so, I assure you that there are plenty of eligible young men here." [Applause.]

"Speaking seriously, we are always glad to welcome excursion parties. We like to show what this city and its surrounding country can offer. We believe in getting better acquainted with our 'neighbors.' If there is anything you see here that you want just ask Frank Wigand or myself, or all know where it is." [Applause.]

APPRECIATE.
E. T. Corman, a Spokane banker, said that the series of entertainments on the way reached a climax in this city. On behalf of the visitors he thanked the Chamber of Commerce for its part in the warm welcome extended to the excursionists.

"It has been a remarkable excursion," he continued. "We are told that all the pleasure intended that will no doubt prove permanent. We rejoice in your climate and wonderful possibilities. A city that can go several hundred miles for her water supply and hold the first aviation meet in America will never go backward. No visitor can have done as much for the lasting prosperity of Los Angeles." [Applause.]

The speaker then praised the section known as the Inland Empire. He referred to the great mineral production, its vast mineral wealth, and the growing fruit belt. In time, he asserted, the apple production of that section will become as noted as the orange will be of Southern California. In closing, he hoped that the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will send its representatives to Spokane, in order that the citizens of that town may make the acquaintance of the hospitality of the Southland.

"We hope to send a party to Spokane before very long," said President Booth. "Our plan is to have a trip to Seattle, Spokane and Portland to assure you, the members of this chamber, are eager to visit that section."

Byron Duffinham, president of the Commercial Club of Sand Point, Idaho, gave a humorous talk. He said some didn't like the name "Sand Point" and predicted that it would never be a metropolis. "I am a good name," he said, "and like it very well." The speaker, however, was not so sure of his name.

Andrews is the publisher of several newspapers and magazines in Michigan, and his reports from California will be widely circulated. He is expected in Los Angeles next week with a large party, and will remain several months.

BROADWAY'S JOLLIFICATION.
Employees Present Letts With Testimonial, and Celebrate Shorter Hours With Fun and Frolic.

A thousand or more employees of the Broadway Department store assembled at the Goldberg-Bailey Assembly Hall last night, and held a jollification and ball over the new schedule of shorter hours adopted for the establishment by Arthur Letts. The hall was handsomely decorated with flags and streamers, with lace and there touched of refreshing green smilax.

Before the dance began, Mr. Letts, who was seated on the music balcony under a canopy of smilax, gave a speech. His employees, testifying to their appreciation of his interest in their welfare, as demonstrated by the reduction of working hours. It was an appropriate and varied program of interest were visited. At Riverside, there was another round of sight-seeing. Lunch was served at the Glenwood. In both cities, the commercial bodies gave a hearty welcome to the excursionists.

Today, there will be an excursion to Pasadena, the Ostrich Farm and Mt. Lowe. The Long Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Virginia management are arranging a joint entertainment for either Thursday or Friday.

While many of the excursionists will go to San Diego tomorrow, it is expected that most will remain here to make the Long Beach meeting a success. The Chamber of Commerce of that city is planning to give the visitors automobile rides and a steamer trip.

The visitors will give a hand in the evening and arrange for an afternoon at the plunge. Dinner, which will be served in the hotel, will be the only expense of the day, besides railroad fares. In addition, the invitation special cars will carry the sights seen from here to Long Beach over the Pacific Electric line.

With the exception of those supposed to break up within the next few days, it is probable that many of the Northerners will remain here for several weeks.

BLESSED JOAN OF ARC.
Bishop Conaty read a paper at the Newman Club meeting last evening. He treated Joan of Arc as a saint of the church, and showed that the recent beatification of the Maid of Orleans was a vindication of her piety and her mission.

The incidents of her life from her birth at Domremy in France in 1412 to the burning of her body at the stake in 1431, and showed that her wonderful success in leading the armada of the French to victory over Charles VII at Reims was an evidence of something more than mere self-deception of a girl under the influence of evil spirits.

The world has recognized her stalwart character and the fulfillment of the prophecy with which she entered into the military life of France. The paper read: "She was a child, unlettered and ignorant of the ways of the world, as well as of military science, and yet her leadership showed that something out of the natural and normal had been born in her knowledge by which success was obtained."

Bishop Conaty discussed the injustice of the trial by which she was condemned as an apostate and a sorceress. He affirmed her to be justly charged to the Catholic church. Bishop Conaty gave a survey of the political condition in France at that time, and showed the dominating influence of England.

He referred to the revision of the trial which took place twenty-four years afterward, by order of Pope Calixtus III, the annulment of the verdict and the proclamation of the innocence of Joan of Arc.

PORTLAND CLUB IN NORTHWEST.

Compromise to Place Team in Coast Territory.

Aberdeen Drops Out in New Order of Things.

Berry Welshes on Effort to Oust Danny Long.

IBY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Providing the Pacific Northwestern League will reinstate Aberdeen, it can have the right to place a club in Portland during the coming season, according to a resolution that was unanimously passed at a special meeting of the Pacific Coast directors held tonight at the St. Francis.

The sudden switch was a surprise to baseball men of California, and came about as suddenly as it was unexpected. It was made plain that this action was taken at the request of the Aberdeen club and not in any way to confer a favor upon either D. E. Dugdale or Lucas.

Walter McCrindle has been appointed a committee of one with power to act, and practically admitted tonight that his uncle would finance the Portland Northwest League club if the deal goes through.

At all events, the issue is once more squarely in front of Dugdale, who is the recognized power of the Northwest baseball. It was hinted before the meeting by C. H. Rowland of Aberdeen, who was present, that there was more behind the dropping of the club than the fact that there was no sixth city for the present. Even now he expresses doubt as to whether the Northwest League will be willing to return to a six-team proposition.

Walter McCrindle has the same opinion, but the next move is up to the Seattle magnate. He and his associates can have the use of the Portland territory for the season, without any hindrance, if they want it. If they still insist on dropping Aberdeen, there will be some excuse to be offered.

Rowland will return at once to the North and make arrangements with Judge McCrindle in order to ascertain whether the Congressman will finance the team. If he does not care to do so, Rowland is sure that he can secure the necessary backing from Portland people.

His next step will be to seek reinstatement at the hands of the Northwest League, stating the facts as they exist.

DINNER HOUR DEAL.

The deal was practically arranged at the dinner hour, when Rowland was relating his experiences and the way he was dropped by Dugdale. Ewing, who was told he had a position to make, told Rowland that if Aberdeen could not be the concern of McCrindle, he (Ewing) would vote to allow the use of the Portland territory. J. W. Brooks of Vernon also assented, and when McCrindle was seen, the plan was arranged.

At the night meeting of the league the following resolution offered by Ewing was adopted and seconded by Berry was passed:

"Resolved, That the Pacific Northwest League be permitted to play in the territory of Portland, Or., during the season 1910 on dates that may be arranged with those used by the Pacific Coast League, and that Aberdeen makes a request to the Pacific Coast League for the admission into the Pacific Northwest League."

A similar amendment was passed to the effect that the president of the Pacific Coast League request the National Board to grant Portland the privilege of playing in that territory for the season of 1910 in the Pacific Northwest League, and from Walter McCrindle that satisfactory arrangements had been completed.

Rowland, seeking the Coast League directors for their action and said he proposed to return home at once.

McCrindle leaves tomorrow for Fresno. He will stop at Madera and Bakersfield as he will select a training quarter for the Beavers. He also wants to arrive at once and visit the various clubs, but after a trip to Los Angeles will shortly be in San Francisco once more.

The league decided to change the Oakland mid-week game from Friday afternoon to Thursday of each week. This will leave Thursday afternoon open in San Francisco and allow the State League to open each week.

A similar change which has been sought by Director James Brooks of Vernon was granted. The mid-week game at Vernon will be played on Friday afternoon each week, while the Tuesday game will take place at Chutes Park, Los Angeles.

The stories which came from Los Angeles about a plan to depose D. W. Long, president of the Pacific Northwest League, were not true. The subject was not even brought up by Henry Berry who was supposed to be the father of the idea, and any event. Long had enough votes to hold him, but the scheme was broken before the meeting and there was nothing to ruffle the harmony of a fully represented session.

ONE OF TWO FASTEST RACING CARS ON EARTH.

Wonderful Benz Racing Car to Appear in Los Angeles.

With the arrival in this country a few days ago of the new high powered Benz racer, which recently created world's records at sprint distances on the Brooklands track, near London, America now has the two fastest cars in the world. The other is E. W. C. Arnold's 175-horse power Flat racer, with which Strang made dazzling speed on the Atlanta Speedway and the Indianapolis Motordrome in recent meets. The new Benz, it is understood, will be controlled by Jesse Froelich of the Benz Auto Import Company. At least he has issued, on its behalf, a challenge to Arnold for a race at Ormond Beach. He suggests a contest at three heats of five miles each, for a purse of $10,000.

WHISTLING WINDS BAFFLE PAULHAN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—

In order to please a few thousand persons who waited through a stormy afternoon to see him fly, Louis Paulhan, the French aviator, took chances against threatening clouds today and rose over the fields in a ten-mile flight from Tanforan Park to San Bruno Hills. To do this he had to lift his machine from a sink-hole ground. He came back without mishap just before the hallistorm broke.

Paulhan made several short flights during the early part of the afternoon, but the wind was too strong to risk leaving the ground far or for any considerable time.

BIG.
RECORDS GO GLIMMERING.

Crown City Building Permits Reach High Totals.

Trio of Big Reality Deals Mark Busy Week.

Continued Activity in All the Country Towns.

PASADENA, Jan. 23.—During the past few days real estate has shown more activity than since the first part of December. Three good big sales of fine residence property in Pasadena and two sales of South Pasadena residences located near the boundary line of Pasadena make new mark for winter realty transactions.

The building permits taken out for the first three weeks of January indicates that permits for this January will exceed any January in the history of the building records office. The totals for the first two-and-a-half days of January are $46,616, as against the full month of January, 1909, $73,874; January, 1908, $46,000 and January 1906, the banner year, $39,000. The weekly permits have averaged over $35,000 and with several good sized permits to come in within the next few days, the indications are that the permits for January 1910 will pass the $100,000 mark.

Permits taken out for the past few days—C. Clarence M. Babineau, seven-room bungalow, 1200 North Hollister avenue, $4000; Los Angeles frame residence, No. 847 south Euclid avenue, $4000; Miss Vida Young, six-room house, 2400 North Lake Avenue, $4000; Frank L. Larson, five-room bungalow, $3000; Larson and Mitchell five-room bungalow at No. 101 Worthington Avenue, $3000; Mrs. Catherine Davis, four-room house, 1200 North Main Avenue, $3000; Mr. and Mrs. John No. 180 Norma Lake Avenue, $3000.

M. W. Davis and Sterling Banks report the sale of lots in the East Colton district were sold to Mr. N. Carter, a wealthy banker of Cincinnati, O., for a consideration of $15,000. The house is situated on a beautiful lot and the lot will be greatly improved with shrubbery and flowers.

Mr. Carter will occupy the place with his family.

Another handsome home has been sold by Mrs. C. A. Allen, who changed hands during the past week, is that of L. S. Walker, No. 1900 El Cajon Avenue, to T. L. Roberts for a consideration of $3000. The residence is modern in every way and situated on a lot 10x145 feet.

A. F. Schulte has sold his beautiful home at No. 117 Fairview Avenue to A. T. Totten for $15,000. The deal was made with the William R. Stantz Company for Garfield R. Jones to Mrs. A. Hayes, who formerly lived in Boston. Mrs. Hayes has been having trouble with money and liked it so well that she concluded to buy it. The consideration was $30,000. The grounds are beautifully improved with lawns, shrubbery and trees, a fine garage and tennis court. The house has a frontage of 200 feet on Grand Avenue and 180 feet on Mayline street.

The residence is in keeping with the grounds. It is fifteen rooms, all of which are handsomely furnished.

Charles Snyder, a wealthy mining man from Reno, Nev., purchased one of the most beautiful homes in the Oak Knoll section during the past week, known as the Harry C. Allen residence, located on Oak Knoll avenue, El Monte, for a consideration of $25,000. In addition to the Allen property Snyder has also purchased an adjoining lot giving him a beautiful site. On this site will expand the 200 foot further improving the house and grounds and expects to make it one of the most beautiful in that part of Pasadena.

The largest deal of the week was that made by John M. and C. Campbell, who sold the L. B. Stratton property on Arroyo Terrace to John Wolfkill, one of the old timers in Southern California. The consideration was $30,000. The Wolfkill residence is one of the show places of Pasadena. It is situated on the brink of the Arroyo Seco overlooking a great stretch of country lying to the west of the Andrade Country Club grounds. The house, which is a large one, is completely furnished with costly furniture. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfkill will occupy the place as their future home.

The Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, which recently purchased its larger home in Pasadena Heights, has mortgaged its college property in Los Angeles for $15,000 and will begin at once to construct temporary buildings on their site. The permanent buildings will be completed during the summer and will ready for occupancy early next fall. Permanent buildings will be built as fast as funds are available.

ITALIAN DUKE, DEADBEAT.
Campobello, Nephew of Cardinal Rampolla, Forges Checks and Steals Money Held in Trust.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CAMDEN, Jan. 24.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A scandal in which the Duke of Campobello, nephew of Cardinal Rampolla, figures is likely to lead to further sensational developments when the Duke's history since his marriage to Princess Alberga eight years ago, becomes known.

The Cardinal, whose name is alleged to have been forged by the Duke to checks and bills of exchange to the amount of $20,000, did his best to hush up the matter up, but his efforts were in vain.

Some time ago the Duke was expelled from the chess and hunt clubs, where he refused to pay his gambling debts. Then he was forced to leave Rome and deprive of his civil rights. Permitted to leave Rome, he went to Florence, where he was appointed leader of an anti-slavery society. Soon after this he was arrested for stealing coins, which Cardinal Rampolla refused to accept when avowing a trial.

The Duke is said to have negotiated checks bearing forged signatures both here and in Florence and only his uncle's intervention averted exposure.

FOUR BODIES FOUND AS DAY'S WORK AT SUDBURY WRECK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SUDBURY (Ont.) Jan. 24.—The recovery of four bodies and the identification of two women found yesterday was the net result of today's work at the scene of Friday's wreck at Spanish River.

The bodies recovered today were those of Miss Mulroy, Cache Bay, Ont.; Hansen, a man of 40, address unknown; Mrs. Kelley, wife of Joseph Kelley, of Newmarket, Wash., and Florence Kelley, 18 years old, daughter of Mrs. Kelley.

Father Chailleau, a Roman Catholic priest who was killed, had a letter of recommendation in his pocket.

Conductor Reynolds had taken up some of the bodies on the trip, and seventy-two holdovers of these, according to the figures, were killed or injured.

Among the dead is Henrik Hansen, who came from Bergen, Norway, to Christmas, N. D.

A fur coat belonging to Dr. Allen McLellan, a surgeon of Sudbury, was brought to the surface by divers to-night. Dr. McLellan is missing.

in the day placed the list of known dead at thirty-one, but tonight their number was increased to thirty-four. Apparently no consideration is taken of the immigrants who were traveling in the wrecked colonial car. The loss of life in the collision is believed to be estimate, as officials refuse to make any statement. It is considered a conservative estimate.

Conductor Reynolds had taken up some of the bodies on the trip, and seventy-two holdovers of these, according to the figures, were killed or injured.

BUX IN WILSHIRE NOW.

BETTER CAR SERVICE MEANS

If you are buying for profit now is the time to get into the Wilshire district. It is now assured. The Los Angeles-Pacific at its recent meeting has decided to build a new highway to bonds. This means that the new highway is coming. It means 10-minute service from Wilshire, to the shopping district. I have not yet seen the map, but it is clear that it is the upward grade. For a quick and sure buy now.

Wilshire is a beautifully improved tract, which already has excellent car service. Being so large, frontage is ample, with parkings are tastefully planted with trees, and all improvements have arrived.

Copper Magnate Scores One Point, But Another Court Ruling Is Against Him.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS—REUTERS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—F. August Heinz lost one point and gained another today in connection with the pending charges against him for alleged misapplication of bank funds. Judge Hough in the United States Circuit Court denied the application of the former “Copper King” for an order enjoining indictments on the charge following the recent quashing of one of the indictments previously found.

Dist.-Atty. Wise announced he would make further presentations to the grand jury.

Heinz then decided that Heinz must be brought to trial on the two indictments still pending. The date for the trial was set for March 2. Heinz had asked for a trial as soon as possible.

Plaies of not guilty were entered by August Heinz, his wife, Sophie, and others connected with the United Copper Company, indicted for conspiracy to obstruct the investigation of the Heinz charges. Their counsel moved for a trial as soon as possible. Decision was reserved.

Public Service--In the Courts and Offices

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Changes in the grade of the approach to the new Buena Vista-street bridge may require the removal of the Fremont statue and may also mar the new gate.

Police Justice Williams elicited interesting replies from a man whose account of himself differs from that brought to light by the detective department.

Emily von der Hagen, alias Muller, appeared before Justice Frederickson to have a hearing on a "fugitive warrant." Her case was continued until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Newspaper heads will arrive here with extra edition papers by that time.

An agreement was reached by Judge Conroy's court yesterday, by which the directors are empowered to dispose of $200,000 worth of assets for the purpose of paying certain indebtedness of the George K. Porter estate.

Mrs. W. H. Maybin told in Judge Conroy's court yesterday how her husband, a bright southern attorney, had been ruined by whisky and the cocaine habit.

The will of Eugene E. Pierce, deceased, filed for probate yesterday, distributes about $150,000 to the family and relatives.

Collins C. Owen brought an action in the Superior Court yesterday against Edward H. Owen, clerk and commissioner of the United States Court, for separate maintenance.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SILENT FEARS FOR GATEWAY.

BRIDGE APPROACH MAY MAR THE FREMONT STATUE SITE.

Engineer Believes Elevation Will Be All That Is Necessary as a Result of Change of Grade--Bridge Cut by Expos Also Believed Menacing to Park Road.

A discovery of Judge Charles D. Silent, one of the Mayor's new Park Commissioners, worried the executive and his board yesterday. Judge Silent discovered that the bridge made by the Southern Pacific and the city of Vista in connection with the new Buena Vista street bridge will not only necessitate the moving of the Fremont statue in Elysian Park but will endanger the hill that now faces the old bridge.

"It will make the Fremont Gate entrance practically useless," Judge Silent told the board yesterday.

The trade was made by the Council under a new agreement for the transfer to the Southern Pacific of a triangular piece of land at the extreme east of Elysian Park, 129 feet wide; it is twenty feet set wide along the east of Buena Vista.

On the purpose of making it safe for the purpose of making it 100 feet wide. As a water main from the high level passed around the hill, it is situated the company paid $10,000 in cash to have it moved so that cutting the hill to widen the trackage under Fred Lippincott, among others, was examined, and a stipulation agreed upon, under the terms of which the directors are to be allowed to negotiate for the sale of stocks and bonds belonging to the company of the San Fernando and the San Joaquin.

Out of these proceeds, the claim of the Security Savings Bank, amounting to $10,000, and the current debts of the corporation, amounting to $12,000, were deducted.

Raymond A. Robinson, accused of making an assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded not guilty, and his trial was fixed for February 21.

Moore charged with making an assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded not guilty and his trial will be had February 21.

Williams, on trial originally with his partner in crime, J. J. Hart, glorified the home of F. M. Coulter, October 23, when he was sentenced for five years after offering a pile of gold.

On account of the law and motion calendar in Department Seven, the case yesterday was confined to arguments on a motion to quash one certain charge of the complaint, and it was understood that all of next Monday afternoon will be set aside for the arguments on a demurrer to the pe-

cussions of the defense.

The restraining order was, therefore, continued, except as to these features, and the application for an injunction was submitted. There will be no trial upon the remaining proposition.

Sam and Simon Mariana, jointly charged with embezzlement, pleaded not guilty. On March 3 they will have an opportunity to convince a jury of the facts.

Cora McNeal, charged with burglary, asked that she be declared a defendant, and the matter went over until next Monday.

Raymond A. Robinson, accused of making an assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded not guilty, and his trial was fixed for February 21.

cussions of the defense.

His fate will be determined to-day.

The City Engineer does not wholly share his fears. He says the company is under its contract required to protect any cut it may make so that the city will be without injury and that the removal of the statue is not necessary.

Deputy Engineer Crocker, who has charge of the bridge work, says it will be necessary, because of the new grade of the approach, to move the statue to a higher position.

The board said he can take such time as his duties as park commissioner require providing it will not interfere with his duties.

Or the aqueduct and whenever he cannot give the time he gave notice he will quit. Lippincott receives $50 a month for his services and he has been promised having his hands full in that position.

John T. Gaffey of San Pedro made a formal offer of the park to offer a gift of $10,000 to the city for an emergency fund. Incidental discussion brought out the fact that the city has a founder, Rev. P. J. Harper, and Silas Lewis, who are the other members whose functions could easily be performed by the Park Superintendent. While no formal action was taken, the members in the park commission and superintendent Morley was asked to make an estimate of what assistance would be needed.

The board decided to ask the engineer to survey the grant to the Southern Pacific and stake it out so the city can view region and settle it.

This being the planting season, Silent urged the liberal planting of trees and the Council will be asked to grant the same to the park.

The board worried a whole lot because it has no means of knowing what becomes of all the oil flower pots and shrubs, which they buy things it wants without red tape or the result of the worry was an order to Morley for an inventory of every thing in the line of tools, boats and equipment and Seaman Mullany for a list of all that has been purchased in the last year.

SPEED LIMIT.

DOCTORS WOULD BE EXEMPT. That a physician, hurrying to the bedside of a patient in a real emergency, should have the privilege of violating the speed limits that bind other drivers and automobile. A petition setting forth this plea, accompanied by the signatures of about 140 members of the profession was filed with the council yesterday.

It represents that often the lives of persons are at stake and that the detention of fast driving machines with physicians have resulted in the loss of life.

It is urged that they be designated by a particular sign that patients will receive an exemption and that if a patrocinian has any doubt as to the necessity for speed he report the offense to see if he is to be held responsible.

If he is found speeding without need he is to be amenable to law the same as others. They urge that no abuse of the exemption be permitted.

A number of physicians declined to sign the petition, but among those who did are several of the most prominent in the city. Drs. Trueworthy, Haynes and Chambers, specifically. Dr. Sherman, who is a member of the Board of Health, is also a member. He did not sign, he says, because he did not feel that a city official should.

One who did sign the petition is one that other professionals might give for special exemption and that there is no recompense to a man killed by having to turn a patient that killed him, providing the "killed" man learns the truth before the injury ends him. They also say the lives saved by example of the speed limit do not prove equal to the number lost by it.

CITY HALL BREVIETES.

The Board of Public Utilities has recommended to the Council that the petition of Mr. Adrian King for a franchise for a district system of telephones be denied.

C. C. Atchison, who has advised the Council to instruct him to withdraw his application to the Attorney General for permission to institute quo warrant to test the right of George K. Porter estate.

Mr. W. H. Maybin told in Judge Conroy's court yesterday how her husband, a bright southern attorney, had been ruined by whisky and the cocaine habit.

The will of Eugene E. Pierce, deceased, filed for probate yesterday, distributes about $150,000 to the family and relatives.

CARRYING OUT HUSBAND'S WISH.

RANCH CORPORATION AFFAIRS PRETTY WELL AIRED.

Affidavit by Former Wife of George K. Porter, Deceased--Denies There is Any Reason for Injunction Asked by Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank--Stipulation.

The affairs of the George K. Porter Company were pretty thoroughly aired in Department Five yesterday, in the action brought by the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank against the Southern Pacific and the city of Vista in connection with the new Buena Vista street bridge will not only necessitate the moving of the Fremont statue in Elysian Park but will endanger the hill that now faces the old bridge.

Lloyd, who heads this week's bill, is certainly the liveliest that house has offered for a long time, and her good looks were not out with an equally good hand making, but she has "the way about her" that is totally unlike anything else in the musical hall, and her musical run of music hall songs is as unorthodox as it is good. She is whistling her songs before they are out. They are "story-tellings" of "rings on her fingers" and "stocks on the line" and such specific scenes as one to "splash her"—make the more tempting by her abbreviated bathing. And there are scenes of the young maid in a mirror which is not new, and to the audience not particularly pleasant. Miss Jantzen, however, is a genuine entertainer, and her changes are done with distinction.

The result is that the audience is interested in the play, called a special rehearsal yesterday afternoon and made several slight changes in the manuscript, which were suggested to Mr. Brown by watching the part of the Belasco performance. "The Spendthrift" opened its second and last week at the Belasco last night, and the reports from the Belasco box office give every promise of the second week even surpassing the attendance record set by the first.

After making the few changes in "The Spendthrift," the Belasco players resumed their rehearsals on "The Man of the Hour," under the direction of George Broadhurst, who will personally conduct all of the rehearsals of his play.

Sullivan and Conidine opened their new bill at the Los Angeles Theater yesterday afternoon with an attractive programme, headed by Delmore and Lee in an exceptionally clever and daring aerial acrobatic act, and the Bohemian Sextette, in their selections from the famous grand operas. The bill also comprises four other new acts and new motion pictures.

OPEN HOUSE AT Y.W.C.A.

Enjoyable Concert Last Night, Lecture of Timely Cookery Topic This Morning.

An audience of about 500 people attended the members' musical association last night, and were rewarded by hearing a splendid programme given by the Dominant Club Quartette, consisting of Mrs. Bertha Vaughn, Mrs. Grace Stivers, Miss Beresford Joy and Miss Katherine C. Elbert, accompanied by Miss Harriet Johnson. They gave sixteen numbers, solo, trio and quartettes and Miss Johnson gave a triplet of piano solos.

How to Get Along Without Money will be the timely topic of an address by Mrs. C. E. Pearce at her first demonstration lecture in the School of Cookery, at 10 o'clock this morning.

It is the third in a series of six lectures on the subject of the work accomplished by the young women, and will be followed by a gymnasium drill to-night.

The programme is keeping open house every day this week, and all persons interested in their work are invited to take advantage of the opportunity to visit and inspect the workshop.

PASADENA.

WATER FIGHT NEAR FINISH.

Municipal Party Feels That Success Is Certain.Electors Receive Avalanche of Pamphlets.Maids and Younger Matrons Are Entertained.

Office of The Times, No. 32 S. Raymond Ave., PASADENA, Jan. 25.—The municipal water bonds were elected here, assuming all air of genuine activity yesterday. Pamphlets mailed by the opposition caused much speculation. There are five in all.

There will be fourteen voting precincts. The Municipal Ownership Committee has arranged so plenty of pamphlets and news letters. After meeting late mid in the afternoon it was announced that a thorough canvass has been made and everything looked favorable for the bonds carrying.

Said a prominent member of the committee last night: "We are in favor of the bonds because it is the right thing to do. We have given municipal water if we are to grow to be the kind of a city we all want. The companies are asking a reasonable price for their plants and we will never get them any cheaper. The stock of all there is nearly all owned by us. When we have none of the money we will go away from home. The argument of the opposition that the city should install a system of its own in opposition to the private water companies in the first place it could not be accomplished without large expenditure, in the next it would be wrong to try to take the property away from the stockholders of the plant without sufficient renumeration."

Major Earley, who has taken a great interest in the campaign since the agitation first started a year ago is still at the front, although he has turned the management of the campaign over to the committee. Last night he called a meeting of his bondholders. Bonds will not carry this time. Many of those who voted against them a little over a year ago have come to me within the past few days and have said they would vote for the bonds this time. This seems to be the feeling all over the city."

FOR MRS. HARVEY.

Thoroughly artistic in all its appointments was the afternoon tea given yesterday at Columbia Hill by Mrs. Charles D. Daggett in honor of Mrs. Charles E. Harvey, wife of Harvey of Chicago, who is visiting here.

Potted palms and foliage plants decorated the reception hall. The drawing-room where Mrs. Daggett and Mrs. Harvey gave their tea was charming with masses of California violets and early almond blossoms. Mrs. Daggett wore a gown of delicate gray chiffon with garniture of gold and silver embroidery. Her hat was an exquisite imported costume of gray-blue, trimmed with Persian bands, with touches of silver.

In the dining-room the tables were decorated with white linens and the room was illuminated with tall candlesticks. Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt and Mrs. James H. McBride presided at the table during the first hour and were relieved by Mrs. Edward R. Kellogg and Mrs. John P. Miller.

Tea was poured in the library and in the west reception room salad was served. Mrs. David Blankenhorn and Miss Elizabeth Speer assisted in serving the room, the waiters being dressed with palm fronds and Spanish bayonet.

Among the unbonneted women assisting were Misses Wm. C. Burman, Carrie Parker, Wm. R. Stans, John Earle Jardine, Henry T. Fuller, Arthur A. Libby, Edward H. Groenendyke, Fred Elmer Wilcox, John W. Hugo, A. S. Halstead, Misses Parsons, Bob Robbins, Stimson, and Rowland.

Music was furnished by Reginald Bland, Opid, and the harp of the Los Angeles symphony concert.

Invitations were extended to the maid's and younger matrons of the society set, and there were seventy-five present.

SPEEDER FINED.

C. K. Miles, a Troop student who has a mania for motorcycle speed, was fined $50 yesterday morning by Justice McDonald. The sentence was suspended for six months. Miles did not mount a motorcycle for six months.

PORT CONCERTS.

The Board of Commissioners yesterday afternoon hired the Crown City band for two park concerts, Jan. 20 and February 2. In the meantime the City Attorney will prepare contracts to be signed by the lowest bidders for concerts during the balance of the season. There are thirty scheduled.

MEMBERS AS HOSTS.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hatcher Smith gave a pleasant entertainment at their home, No. 1671, Baldwin avenue, last night, to the members of the Brotherhood and Christian Endeavor societies of the First Baptist church. The guests were entertained by James W. Davidson, a member of the Royal Geographical Society and former consul to Formosa and Shanghai.

VISITORS FROM NORTH.

Members of the chamber of commerce of Spokane and Walla Walla, Wash., will be the guests of Pasadena today. They will visit the ostrich farm in South Pasadena early in the morning.

From there they will travel to the Manzanar where they will be met by members of the Board of Trade at 10:30 o'clock. After an informal reception the visitors will be taken for a ride about the city. In the afternoon Mr. Lowe will visit.

THREE INJURED.

Three members of the family of A. Wener, Lamanda Park, were badly injured yesterday by being thrown out of a double-seated buggy. Mrs. Wener was driving the horse along the street slowly when a motorcycle suddenly drove up. The buggy and horse were overturned. Mrs. Wener, her mother-in-law, and sister, Mrs. Sprinkle, received a broken hand.

VERNON AGAIN HAS SENSATION.

SLAVONIAN IS ACCUSED OF AN ATTACK ON HOG DEALER.

Quarrel Follows Dismissal from Service—Witness Says Gun Was Drawn and Threats Uttered—Defendant Denies Ownership of Antique Weapon—Furnishes Bond.

Internal dissensions among citizens of Vernon were again the subject of consideration yesterday in Justice Summerfield's court, when Peter Antonovich, a young Slavonian, appeared to answer to a charge of threatening to kill N. H. McLean, a hog dealer.

Antonovich is 19 years of age. He was born in a little province on the border between Turkey and Austria. He came to the United States some years ago and acquired a working knowledge of the language. Last September he secured employment on the McLean hog ranch. He worked there a short time and, because of some argument, he was ordered to leave.

Some days later he called on McLean and asked for an interview, which was granted. That was on October 27. When Antonovich reached the ranch, a fight ensued between him and the proprietor in which W. H. Turner, who had been employed to take Antonovich's place, took a prominent part.

The evidence yesterday was conflicting. McLean said that Antonovich arrived at the ranch in an ugly mood and tried to kill him, but was disarmed by Turner.

A heavy revolver or old-fashioned make was produced as evidence. It was admitted it had been the weapon drawn by Antonovich.

McLean's evidence was corroborated by Turner. "I was driving across the road with a load of feed when I saw Antonovich," said Mr. Turner. "There was an argument," continued Turner.

Antonovich testified with dramatic air of a martyr. When asked if the gun belonged to him, he stood up, holding his hands over his heart and indulged in a passionate discourse in his native tongue.

"He says the gun is not his, that he never had a gun in his life, and that if the court can produce a truthful witness to the fact that the gun belongs to him, he will cut off his right hand," said the interpreter.

The defendant stated that he started in to talk quietly with McLean. The two became angry and drew the revolver. Antonovich knocked him down with it, and that he ran away as fast as he could.

The court put Antonovich under oath to know the facts, no necessary sum was furnished by friends, and the defendant was released.

EXHIBITS ARE INSTRUCTIVE.

Interesting Articles Shown in Display of Architectural Club—Artistic Work by Masters of Craft.

Pieces of furniture that were once the property of Emperor Maximilian, hammered brass candlesticks, covered with beaten gold and weighing 20 pounds each, and ancient Spanish treasure chests are displayed at the architectural exhibit on the fourth floor of the Hamburger building.

The furniture consists of chairs and a settee, made of mahogany and covered with hand-woven Aubusson tapestry. The treasure chests have long hinges and hasps that were fashioned by hand many years ago. The handles are valued at $5000 each.

These exhibits afford entertainment for the hundreds of people who view the exhibits and the reproductions of work of leading architects of the country and England. This includes drawings, paintings, etchings and paintings of notable buildings, and the exhibition is instructive as well as entertaining.

The section containing the mural drawings by Edwin Howland Blashfield and reproductions of his decorative work in stone of the public and private buildings in this country is especially popular. House furnishings, interior decorations and fittings, garden pottery and other articles used in the various art fields are also displayed. Exhibits of art glass also attract much attention.

The attendance has increased daily since the exhibition opened. Admission is entirely free, and the hall is open from 10 to 10 p.m.

Los Angeles is the second city to have the exhibition. It was given first in San Francisco, but is much larger and more interesting now than at the original. Los Angeles will be the next to see the exhibit and then it will be carried to Seattle. These four cities are members of the Architectural League of the Pacific Coast, under the auspices of which the display is being given by the Los Angeles Architectural Club.

MORE WORK, MORE MEN.

Assistant Appointed on Supreme Court Business Here—Every Record Must Be Duplicated.

The volume of business has increased so much in the local office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court that M. C. Van Allen of Tulare has been appointed by Clerk Frank L. Caughey to assist R. L. Dunlap, who has been the deputy in charge for several years. In the main office at San Francisco, there are three deputies besides Caughey and his chief assistant. One clerk is able to handle the business. San Francisco, however, has come into office, there has been a gradual change in the system of book-keeping. After securing his present position, he was considered one of the best expert accountants and clerks in the State, and an authority on finance.

One innovation is the duplicating of every record made in the Supreme Court. A copy is made in the Los Angeles office by mail within twenty-four hours after the original is made. Lawyers are also notified at once of any disposition of a case in which they are interested.

Caughey has recently announced he would be a candidate this fall for re-election. Inasmuch as the raise from $3000 to $5000 for Clerk of the Supreme Court does not go into effect during the year, he has decided to remain in his present incumbency. It is said that the bar of the Supreme Court greatly unanimous support him. The Justices of the Supreme Court are said to be in favor of Caughey's serving a second term of four years.

This includes drawings, paintings, etchings and paintings of notable buildings, and the exhibition is instructive as well as entertaining.

The section containing the mural drawings by Edwin Howland Blashfield and reproductions of his decorative work in stone of the public and private buildings in this country is especially popular. House furnishings, interior decorations and fittings, garden pottery and other articles used in the various art fields are also displayed. Exhibits of art glass also attract much attention.

The attendance has increased daily since the exhibition opened. Admission is entirely free, and the hall is open from 10 to 10 p.m.

Los Angeles is the second city to have the exhibition. It was given first in San Francisco, but is much larger and more interesting now than at the original. Los Angeles will be the next to see the exhibit and then it will be carried to Seattle. These four cities are members of the Architectural League of the Pacific Coast, under the auspices of which the display is being given by the Los Angeles Architectural Club.

Assistant Appointed on Supreme Court Business Here—Every Record Must Be Duplicated.

The volume of business has increased so much in the local office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court that M. C. Van Allen of Tulare has been appointed by Clerk Frank L. Caughey to assist R. L. Dunlap, who has been the deputy in charge for several years. In the main office at San Francisco, there are three deputies besides Caughey and his chief assistant. One clerk is able to handle the business. San Francisco, however, has come into office, there has been a gradual change in the system of book-keeping. After securing his present position, he was considered one of the best expert accountants and clerks in the State, and an authority on finance.

One innovation is the duplicating of every record made in the Supreme Court. A copy is made in the Los Angeles office by mail within twenty-four hours after the original is made. Lawyers are also notified at once of any disposition of a case in which they are interested.

Caughey has recently announced he would be a candidate this fall for re-election. Inasmuch as the raise from $3000 to $5000 for Clerk of the Supreme Court does not go into effect during the year, he has decided to remain in his present incumbency. It is said that the bar of the Supreme Court greatly unanimous support him. The Justices of the Supreme Court are said to be in favor of Caughey's serving a second term of four years.
